As of June 5, 2020, there were 46 reported fatal cases of COVID-19 among children and teens aged 0 to 19 years old.

There were 19 deaths reported among children aged 0 to 10 years old.

There were 20 deaths reported for children and teens aged 10 to 19 years old.

There were 16 child deaths reported for whom the age was not specified.

9 states did not report fatalities by age.

Note: The latest available data were abstracted from each state health department coronavirus website and from credible news sources on June 5, 2020. Age categories reported by states varied. Not all states reported deaths by age. Data are preliminary and subject to change.