

Race and Ethnicity of Children and Teens with Positive Coronavirus Tests

- As of May 19, 2020, only two states reported race and ethnicity for kids with coronavirus.
- Race and ethnicity data were missing for 29.4% of kids.
- Hispanic kids were 46.9% of all cases, and 66.4% of cases which had race and ethnicity reported.
- Blacks comprised 12.1% of the cases in Illinois and 1.5% of the cases in California.
- There were 11 American Indian/Alaska Native kids and 16 Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander kids identified among these cases.

Percent of Cases (n=8,939)

Note: The latest available data were abstracted from state health department coronavirus websites on May 14, 2020. AI/AN = American Indian/Alaska Native. NHOPI = Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander